

Share the gift of reading with a contribution towards the purchase of books for the Lititz Public Library.

Gift-A-Book

Earmark your contribution for the purchase of books. Choose your favorite genre or subject area.

Memorial Gifts

A library book is a lasting remembrance of a departed friend.

Honor Gifts

Commemorate special people—grandparents and teachers— and events — birthdays and holidays.

Our librarians will choose books to match your honoree's special interests.

A letter will be sent to you and to the honoree or their family to let them know that you have donated a book in their honor.

A book plate will be placed in the book to acknowledge the honoree. Everyone who borrows the book will be able to share your gift of reading.

Consider a lasting gift to the Lititz Public Library that costs nothing during your lifetime.

Charitable bequests are an important part of estate planning. The Lititz Public Library has been fortunate to receive generous support from far-sighted individuals who made contributions through their Wills, often at a more significant level than they could have made with an outright donation.

A bequest is a legacy that enriches future generations.

Supporters can make a charitable gift by naming the Lititz Public Library as a beneficiary in their Will. Your Will can include gifts in the form of property, a percentage of your estate or the residue of your estate (property remaining after other bequests have been fulfilled).

Although only a few sentences are needed to make a bequest in your Will, it is recommended that benefactors consult with a lawyer to prepare the Will or Codicil.

If you wish to make a bequest to the library, we suggest the following wording:

I give, devise and bequeath [$ fixed amount or percentage] to the Lititz Public Library, Inc., a Pennsylvania nonprofit corporation (EIN 23-6406263) located in Lititz, Pennsylvania 17543.
